Apaixonada por arte desde pequena, sempre gostou muito de desenhar, pintar, bordar, reformar móveis e reaproveitar materiais. Gostava de criar.

Formada em publicidade, atuou na área de branding e direção de arte por mais de 10 anos, mas em 2012 reencontrou-se com sua criatividade artística e decidiu se dedicar 100% a ela. Fez cursos de cerâmica, design de móveis, marcenaria e voltou a pintar. Suas inspirações vêm de cores fortes, formas simples e em grande parte da arquitetura. Se apaixonou pelos ladrilhos hidráulicos e foi aí que surgiu a parceria com a Dalle Piagge. A linha “Hexagon” já é um sucesso e em breve terá novidades.

“Sou apaixonada por tudo o que é artesanal e que traz uma história e dedicação.

A arte possui uma alma, algo que os produtos industrializados não conseguem ter.”
